"A PIECE OF SUMMER" IN DIMITROVGRAD FROM JULY 1 TO 31

Tuesday, 2 July 2024

The 11th edition of "A Piece of Summer" will be held in Dimitrovgrad from July 1 to 31.

The program will be opened with an exhibition in the City Library Penyo Penev. The exhibition "The End" as inspiration and illustrations based on Attila Bartish's novel from the Department of Fine Arts at NBU can be visited until the end of July. The exhibition includes illustrations by students from the Department of Fine Arts at NBU. The novel is dedicated to the extraordinary human destinies, extreme feelings, frankness, hot eroticism, bright characters, daring behavior, and boiling passions. This is a novel of extremes and challenges.

Attila Bartis was born in 1968 in Targu Mures (Romania). His books have been translated into many languages. His last major novel "The End" (2015) has been published in England, France, Germany, Romania, Macedonia. A production based on the novel has been performed with great success at the Radnoti Theatre, Budapest since March 2023. Photography is also an emblematic vocation of Attila Bartish. His photos are exhibited in prestigious galleries in Hungary and abroad. Today, he is a member of the Secheni Academy of Literature and Art.

July 4, 20.00, on the Central City Avenue, the acoustic jazz trio with soloist Maria Arnaudova will delight the citizens of Dimitrovgrad with a concert. A special guest at the event will be Daniel Nikolov - vocalist.

July 10, 20.00, on the Central City Avenue, concert by David Dower Trio and Elliott Frost - Australia and England.

July 11, a visit in the Prikazka kindergarten. Special guests: David Dower Trio.
