Thursday, 25 May 2023

At a solemn ceremony on the occasion of May 24th, Dimitrovgrad Municipality honored its most outstanding teachers, cultural figures and students. On the Day of Slavic alphabet, the city management traditionally presents the highest awards in the field of education and culture. The mayor of the municipality and the chairperson of the municipal council presented the highest education & culture awards. They gave warm welcoming words on the occasion of the holiday.

"May 24th is a symbol of our aspiration to have knowledge through science, education and culture that fills us with national pride and self-confidence. On this day, we pay respect and bow before the great work of the Holy brothers Cyril and Methodius and all their followers. On this day, all Bulgarians, wherever they are, unite around language, writing and knowledge, because "spirituality does not fall where knowledge lives". Knowledge remains through the centuries thanks to the people who create identity and bring up patriotically generations among us. People like you related to education, culture, science and art - a deep bow before you for your professionalism and your desire to preserve the Bulgarian language and spirituality. Continue with the same enthusiasm to build the foundations of Bulgarian spirit", Mayor Dimov said in his speech.
